The First Full Contact 11 a side Women's Game is ON!!!

GV is proud to announce the first ever Women's 11 a side full contact (NCAA rules) game of Gridiron to be played in Australia.

- When: Friday the 5th of June at 7.30 pm (kick off)
- Where: SHNC Parkville
- Teams: To be released at a later date

Congratulations to the Head Coaches of the 2 All Star Teams

Matthew Jenkins (Lady Raiders) & Jamie Stafford (Diamonds)

Eligibility to play Any registered player from GV's 2014 Women's competition is eligible.

Format for selection

There will be 4 practice sessions prior to the game with the first commencing Wednesday night the 13th of May and the 3 following Wednesday nights. These practices will be held at the Melbourne University Royals home ground, as listed on the GV website, which is the most central location for all teams. Training's will commence at 7 pm and go till a time yet to be determined by the two Head Coaches.

The first two practices will be open tryouts for any interested players, after which the two head coaches will conduct a draft selecting 25 players per team. The names of the drafted players will be posted on the GV Website by Sunday night May 24.

The final 2 Wednesday night practice sessions will be for the 50 selected/drafted players only.

Assistant Coaches, medic's, and game day sideline personal are all required and needed so if you coached in the women's comp or helped out in any way we are keen to hear from you. Please lodge your interest in participating via email to mark.levin@gridironvictoria.com.au and your details will be passed on to the head coaches of the teams.

More information will be posted over the coming weeks but if you have any specific questions please refer them to the above email address.
